5-22-99 Touching people 100 miles in every direction

I have chosen you to be my instrument to touch people 100 miles in every direction. You will not do what I plan unless your pastor understands and obeys each detail. If you will not do my plan, I will find another person to hear me, it will be someone here or someone in another church.

This is what I require, start the process of eliminating TV, hobbies, sports, errands, seeking of food and clothing and every thing in your life no matter how innocent or good it is. Eliminate all your own ideas, thoughts, goals, schedules, appointments of your own making, agendas, till there is nothing, only the wilderness and me. Then I want you to wait until you hear me and mark down in your heart or in a book every time you hear me with purity and clarity. At first you will not be sure everything is from me, then within a few days or weeks you will start to know exactly what is of me. I want you to say every day, "Where is the Lord?" and I want you to say every day, "I have nothing, I do not have TV anymore, I am not interested in food, I have no interests, no assignments, I do not need that trip to the mall or that shopping, there is no person I must see now," till you exclude yourself and seclude yourself from everything. Literally you will be in a wilderness waiting for me to speak or to see me.

This does not mean that you don't go to work or don't eat anything or don't talk to anyone. But you are in the wilderness in your spirit even though your outward man does not appear to be different. You are to be alone with me all day long when you are able to be alone with me literally and at other times you will only be able to be alone with me spiritually. Your eye will be single, you will be focused on one thing, you will walk away from the TV, meals, shopping, social situations, bills, errands, things that must be done will be done when I tell you and all things will be done when I tell you. You will progressively want only one thing and seek only one thing and desire only one thing and be hungry for only one thing all day long, every day. And I will begin to speak to you all day long, every day. My goal for you is to hear me only, see me only, want me only till I have one person who will do everything I say every day and not miss a beat. You will be out in the wilderness every day as a watchman watching for me to speak and act and you will begin to see many things and hear many things in the Spirit realm.

I am ready to do this now, today, in every one of your lives but only a few of you will believe this. This is the price I require now for revival which will start in one heart, your heart and will spread to many others as they see one totally consecrated to me. I will make you a carrier of revival and fire because everything you give up progressively in the next few weeks will become chaff and emptiness and I will replace every desire and every pleasure and every natural inclination with my fire and glory.

If no one does this, no revival will come. If one does this I will have you stand in the gap for this city to deliver it and I will be seen for 100 miles in every direction and more. If you do not want a great move of God in your church, your city, in your life, and a mighty revival with the salvation of many souls here and in you what do you want? Find out what I want and I will show you exactly what I want you to do.

If 10 hear this call I will raise up 10 mighty men or women with 10 mighty callings and giftings and ministries. If 100 hear me I will raise up 100 mighty callings and I will commission each of the 100 to do my perfect will in this city a wherever I send them.

I have sent my servant unto you to give you this word and this sermon. Believe whichever you choose. They are the same. Do not drop these words to the ground. Do not ignore these words, do not leave them in the church, do not put them on the back burner. Let these words be before your eyes and your heart until you obey them. If you will not obey them, there is no other message you are to embrace.

I am in the wilderness waiting for you. There is no where else for you to go. There is not another you need to wait for to show you the way. I am waiting for you right now. I will mark the moment you embrace these words and begin to do them and when you come out to me. But do not go halfway and then give up and go back to your old lives. Stay in the wilderness and wait until I come, then I will sup with you and you with me and I will begin to show you day by day all that I want you to do.

What part don't you understand? Come out of your life into my wilderness. Wait until you hear from me. Do everything that must be done but whatever can wait till later or tomorrow do what I tell you first. Come to prayer. Pray as often as you can. Pray day and night, get down on your knees when you can. Seek me every day, all day if possible. If you have 8 hours to do as you please could you not give me 4 hours or 2 hours or 6 hours? You will be amazed at what I have planned for you and what I will speak to you. You will be amazed at the anointing and fire I am ready to put into your life. I love you. Come to me now.

I am ready to deliver every city in the world. Who will hear me? I may have you deliver 10 cities, you will hear me when I send you to 10 cities? Will only one hear me today? Will you go halfway and then give up or will you go all the way? Will you hear all that I have to say, beginning with this, or only half of what I say? Will you be 90% full of self and 10% me? Where are my Elias and Elishas, where are my Moses' and Daniels? You can be greater than them if you hear me only now, saith the Lord.

I know that each one of you loves me and has served me faithfully for some years but I desire to do a new thing in your ministry and in your church.

Your lives have too much of your own things, your own plans and too many other interests that are not mine. I desire for you to bow down before me and ask me, what do you want me to do? What is in my life that you don't want there? I am not talking about sin so much as activities and interests. You know the sins and I will deal with them too but I want you to stop going through the motions of church services and devotions and visitations and meetings that are so full of empty things that do not inspire and are not of me. I want you to simplify your desires so that there will only be one thing that you want. My will. I want you only to hear my voice. I want to cleanse your hearts of all desires, plans, ambitions, ideas because I want to replace them with my desires, my plans, my ideas. You are full of too much that is not of me.

I have been increasing your hunger for me but I want to do that to a depth that you have never experienced before. Some of you will not listen to me now but if you do not I will require it of you later even if it must be before my throne. I want to replace the smaller fire that is in you with a greater fire that will consume all self-ideas with my truth and pure ideas from me.

If you seek for my direction with your whole heart you will find a new direction that is from me. If you hunger for true fire from me I will come to you and satisfy you. If you will not, I will raise up a fire in other's around you, in your church and in other churches but you will not like their anointing just as Saul did not like David's anointing and cast a spear at him and hated him. No, I want to do this in you, because I have called you to be my Ministers in this hour.

You may ask, how can I get this fire? More fire than I have? Lord, I have always wanted it? The hour has come that I will give revival fire into your heart and soul that will spread in your church and to many others outside the church. But you must walk away from the TV, you must walk away from food, even skip a meal or two or more, you must lay down your favorite hobbies for a time or even for good, lay down all things that are legitimate and even good, because the time is now that I want to speak to you. I have things to show you. If you will desire to hear these things and my voice in this hour like you have never desired before, if you will pray one hour a day and not give up till I speak to you, then I will show you some of my treasures and some of my plans for you and for the church. And I will increase your ministry and then show you even more. I want to use you and I want to speak to you like you have never known before.

Do you believe I am calling to you? Do you believe that I will speak to you? Take off your shoes when you come to me and come with your whole heart and with an open heart and it will be a new holy ground for you. A new fire will come to you as at the burning bush, and a new word and commission I will give to you in this hour. For I desire to set my people free, I want you to deliver them with the truth and holiness that I will impart to you. I will touch you with a burning coal from heaven. If you will let me shine my powerful light upon your life and into your heart. Will you say, Here I am Lord, speak Lord; I will do all your will? I will take your hand and lead you into great victories if you will take my hand in this last hour, saith the Lord your God.

What I have already placed in your heart, cherish and treasure, surely I will bring to pass the vision and dream that I have already given to you. But you must let me clarify it and fine tune it. You must not run ahead and do it in your own way. I want to teach you to listen to me every day as to how my plan for you and the church will be unfolded. I want you to stop doing things your way and listen to me every day to what I say to you. You will not get all the details at once, but your daily dependence on me to hear my voice and your daily obedience will set the stage and put into position all that I am planning. Do you believe I am taking your hand? Do you believe that I can do mightier victories in your life than you have ever dreamed or imagined before? I am your God who will uphold you in all things that I speak unto you. If you will become as a sheep in simplicity and dedication you will hear my Voice, know my voice, and all of you who are my sheep will follow me, saith the Lord.

How can I summarize what the Lord has been saying in the last 2 years? I will try in a short span. Love will be a major key in the coming revival. In Matt. 24 it says that the love of many will grow cold and many will fall away. The Church has an emerging remnant, the Bride of Christ, that is fed up with games, politics, worldly ideas, phony leadership, man-made sermons, man-made gifts and man-made programs. But much of the remnant is still trapped in old wine skin systems and are under the control of (at times) "well meaning" pastors and organized churches that have been hardened and deceived by the love of success, power, money, buildings and coveting the tithing multitudes. There is a life and death struggle right now for the hearts of pastors and the hearts of the people sitting in the pews, multitudes are in the valley of decision trying to decide between staying with a worldly church or "breaking out" to join an anointed remnant. Much of the remnant still trapped in the churches are fearful, distrustful and are not being released into their giftings, ministries and destinies. God is saying through the prophets now (and other types of messengers), "Let my people go," to the pastors of the churches. (Matt. 21:33-43) (Is. 1:9 and 10 calls the leaders of God's people rulers of Sodom). There must be a Body ministry to show the fuller glory of God (not just one man shows or rule by a few). Those who are coming close to God are sick of the conditions of the Church, as God is also sick of it. (the 7th day, final chapter of time, Laodicean church (Rev. 3:14-22) (Also, the Lord may soon be vomiting them out (the lukewarm)). Jesus is knocking on the door of the churches in the guise of the least of the brethren, no-name messengers (prophetic voices). Jesus said if you receive not the least of the brethren whom I send you receive not me. ("depart from me goats into eternal torment"). The churches and pastors have said no to Christ and his messengers. (Matt. 21:35 and 36, 22:3-5, and 23:37 and 38).

Those who are coming close to God are seeing, feeling, and are yearning with the same heart with God, and the cry of God is that only real agape love that flows from the throne of God will be the answer now. We must love the broken down Church (Is. 1:4-15, Is. 64:6-12, and Acts 15:14-17) and pray with weeping and intercessions of the Holy Spirit. The Church needs healing, deliverance, and the salvation of the lukewarm and cold Christians before the influx of the lost (where will they go if they come in now?). But we must also go out into the streets to the unchurched. (Matt. 22, the highways and the byways) to bring them into real revival. Sometimes small group meetings and home meetings are more on fire than the established, organized meetings that are in many church buildings (there is more freedom in the smaller works?). Ask yourself honestly, do you have real revival in your church building? Revival is going to burst out in the houses and in the streets, for the churches almost unanimously are saying

NO to God's revival (done His way) and yes to activities created by man (more busy-ness, our "business as usual" and all this is not acceptable to God because God is not in it). Love, weeping, travail, sighing over the abominations and idols in our lives and in the churches, yes, this weeping and travail will increase in this revival. Compassion, forgiveness, and a sweet, tender, humble anointing will be seen on the remnant as they get closer and closer to the heart of God and as their hearts become the same as his for the Church and the last harvest of souls. The character of God will be seen in the Bride of Christ and the Holy presence of God will be seen in their lives (glory, fire, anointing). The truth will be seen more clearly than ever and will set the remnant free and every person held in the strongholds of Satan's lies. The knowledge of God will increase, and with love and anointing in it, will set many free from false teachings, if people will hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

To be read to all large, "successful" churches

You want real revival but you do not know how to get it. You have been waiting for a plan so that full revival will come but you have not received it yet. I am tired of your services, just as many of your people are growing tired. For each one in your congregation I would be willing to give a private word. I would be willing to lay a mantle on each of you and give a commission to each person, just as I told Moses exactly what I wanted him to do, I also want to tell each one of you what I want you to do. The problem is that your church services and your private lives are 90% full of self, private desires, agendas and pleasures and 10% full of me. You may think that the percentages are much higher for you than I have stated but that is your pride. Even if you were 50% self and 50% me your lives and your services would be so different than they are that it would be as night compared to day. What I really desire and what I really will require is 100% me. You may argue with me that that is impossible, but I say unto you, you will never do the works that my Son did or greater works until you lay down all that is partly of your making and mixtures of what you think is you and me, until you lay down all plans, all agendas, all sermons, all songs, all testimonies, all desires, all pleasures, every good and proper and legitimate thing and hear my voice and do only what I tell you to do. You will argue with me, that is impractical, what do you mean, how can we do that? You must go into the wilderness, leave everything behind, no place to hide and no place to go back to, and only hear my voice from now on. I may give you back some of your dreams and visions that you had for the future but I may change them or not give them back at all. I want to rule each one of your lives, 24 hours a day, every minute, every second. I want to rule your entire services; every moment I want to guide your services. I know that many of you will disregard this prophecy because you have become hardened to take or leave what you here as you desire. But some of you will here this call loud and clear and you will immediately begin to seek me and my will with intense prayer and fastings as you never have before in your life. And I am ready to be found by you. I am ready to put a mantle upon you and entrust unto you a vision and a commission for you to do for my revival that is now coming. If the leadership of this church will lay down their future plans and not take them up again until I have given them back to you with my clear direction, with my anointing and fire, then the leadership, too, will know what I want them to do with this church and its services. This will not be easy for the leadership to do because of pride and the belief that you understand so much already, but I am requiring for you to lay down all things now. It will be hard because you will want to pick up your dreams and visions and goals again too quickly without receiving them back from me, but when I speak to you again, if you really want to hear my will, it will be a burning bush experience, it will be so clear to you what I am saying and what I want you to do that your feet will burn with my anointing and holiness, and your hands and mouth will be touched by fire from my throne. I do not expect you to understand all that this means. All I want you to know is that you must stop what you are doing, go into the wilderness till you hear from me, and then continue a day by day, hour by hour walk with me that will surely produce the power and authority and great results that you long for. As surely as Jesus came forth from the wilderness after 40 days of prayer and fasting and did great things for me, each one of you who hear my voice will also be entrusted with gifts and ministries that will affect my Church greatly and you will be a pleasure unto me.

Hear this word which the Lord speaks to each of you today, let it sink deep into your heart and do not forget what I have required you to do. Come to me, come into the wilderness, for I have prepared a table for you there, I desire to sit with you and sup with you and tell you my heart and entrust unto you my vision for you. Will you come and see what I want you to do and set my people free?

I am ready to rend the heavens and come down to you to fill your services and each one of your personal lives with 100% of me. When I do, and if you will open the door to me, you will see the mountains quake and fire will kindle in you and all around you (and the waters will boil). Then the nations will no longer mock, "Where is their God?" But they will tremble at my mighty presence as you will yourself. I am the Lord who wants to dwell in your midst mightily if you will open the door to me.

Right now, you hesitate to do anything I tell you to do because you are too full of self, practicality, feasibility, what will fit your comforts, pleasures and standards, that is why you will not do exactly what I tell you to do and that is why you are only accomplishing mediocre and “acceptable” levels of “success” and not doing the great things that I have planned for you. Do not measure great things by the standard of ministries around you but look at what you see in my Word and know that I want to do even greater things than this. Do you believe this? Do you want this? Believe me, my hands are stretched out to you now to welcome you and feed you and do things that you cannot even conceive in your minds or hearts. No eye has seen nor ear has heard nor can you even think or ask what I am preparing to do for you if you will seek me with all your heart and wait upon me to speak to you.

If you do not give heed to this word, you will go on with your mediocre success, for it truly is mediocre in my sight. If you will not hear, be warned that I am raising up individuals in many churches who will hear my voice and who will be my army and who will gain my anointing, and you will be jealous of them and fight against them just as Joseph’s brothers fought against Joseph and Saul fought against David. But I warn you that you must join hands with my army and gain the anointing that I desire to give to all of you. Do not fight what I am raising up but lay down your pride and become “hot” Christians for my glory. Become my Bride cleansed of all man-made and worldly spots and wrinkles. I surely then will take great delight in you. I will raise up the standard of my great name, and if I be lifted up I will draw all men unto myself saith the Lord.

Behold your God! You do not know what spirit I am of as yet. Behold your God! The Lion of Judah you know and seek but I come to you in this hour as a Lamb that is slain. I am grieved with many of my servants here this day. Some have learned to dwell in my presence and abide in me truly and have come to know my heart of love, kindness, humility but many do not know my heart of compassion and love. You value the lion in someone’s character and not kindness and lowliness. You do not yet know what spirit I am of. Behold your God! Behold your God! You value the important and the famous and those of repute and do not even see the least of the brethren, the retarded, the child, the 80 year-old. Is this who my Son was? Did not he welcome the children, lifting them up in his arms; did he not talk to women when this was not the practice of the day? No, you do not know what spirit I am of as yet. You who have spent hours in my presence and have dwelt in my house day after day, many intercessors know more my heart and the yearnings of my heart than the leaders of the church. For you leaders act with pretense, with partiality, favoring one another, favoring those of some "fame" (though it is not even of value to me), you do not see those who are the least of the brethren, you do not see as I see. For you still value what I do not value. Have not I chosen the blind, the lame, the stupid, the ugly, the retarded, the uneducated, the flaky, the rejects, the good and the bad in this hour, as the churches, the pastors, the monuments of man have rejected my feast and "they would not come," and so I have said that those who I have chosen have understood me and came into my feast before you, for I have made them worthy, and I will pass you by, for you are not worthy in this hour, for you do not understand love, humility, kindness, and you do not see as I see in this hour. Did not my servant, Samuel, see as I see when he saw David, when no one else considered him? Do you see as he saw? Do you see as I see? I looked on the heart of David but you look on outward appearance. Can you not see the child of 5 who speaks my word, can you not see the 80 year-old who speaks softly and stammeringly and yet it is my word? Could you not see what I am teaching this man who talks with angels? Look not anymore with human eyes or hear with human ears. Behold your God! I do not see as you see. You do not feel as I feel. You do not treat with respect the people that I have chosen. Did not rejects and those who were not accepted by others come to David in his caves? And I built an army of them and added to his number day after day so that they became as the army of God and even as the host of heaven?

You do not know me. You know not yet what spirit I am of. Behold your God! I am the humble king. I am the lamb, bleeding and slain. You do not know me unless you see as Samuel saw, unless you receive the least that I have sent into your lives. But you do not see. You are proud and look with haughty eyes. You look over others that I have chosen and the ones you fondly look at do not even know me.

Hear the word of the Lord today. Behold your God! Be ashamed. For I am grieved with your proud, haughty ways this day. Unless you repent I will say to you, you never had the yoke of my Son on you, you never learned of me, you did not know what spirit I am of as yet. Take the yoke of my Son upon you and learn of me for I am meek and lowly of heart. For I see the lowly. I love the lowly. I have chosen the lowly in this hour. Do you want to be separated on my left side as a goat? For when I walked up to you, you did not welcome me, show me love or treat me with kindness. And then you say, when did you Lord walk up to us and we treat you that way, he will say if you did not this to the least of the brethren you did it not unto me and so since you did not know me and thrust me away I will say you are a goat and know not yet who I am. Behold your God! Behold your God! Repent of this offense for I am grieved this day over many of you leaders of the Church who should know me and my heart and yet you are walking afar from me and my heart in this hour. I am calling you to deep love, deep yearnings of my heart, to tears, to compassion, to kindness, to real love in this hour. Do you hear? Can you read between the lines? Can you hear my deep, heart cry in this hour? Come to me and I will show you the way, let me burn up your pride, your false ways, your partiality and give my heart of love even in this hour and I will begin the work, saith the Lord.

If you are angry over this word you will be deceived and you will harden your heart. Do not be angry. Kings of old were angry when a prophet told them what I said and they pushed them away and imprisoned them. But if you have the heart of David you will repent immediately when Nathan points at you and says that you are the man, David.

2-22-99 A stern warning to the leadership and the people

I am sad for my Church. All is not well for my Church, especially in the United States. The whole head is sick, not my Son, for my Son is not ruling in most churches. But the leadership is ruling with falsehood. They are lying to the people, with words that sound good and true but that are not coming from a true heart. The minds and hearts of the leaders are upon gain. In some cases it is gain for their own church names and for their own personal reputations, and so the church must look good, be bigger, do better, do bigger things for their own name. And so, the money must be gained and the sources protected. For others it is personal pleasures under the disguise of "my prosperity for you." The whole head is sick because of wealth, materialism, pleasures, and building kingdoms and names for yourselves and your churches.

Is this not my Church? Beware of your protection of money and name and reputation. You are not teaching what I tell you because you know the people will be offended and leave. You are teaching what you want to keep the people in the church and to keep your name and the name of your church elevated. Your teaching will not turn people from their sins, only my teaching will. You are selfishly guarding your people from my teaching so that you will not lose them. I am not interested in your teachings or your sermons anymore. You are selfishly guarding your jobs as hirelings who are not looking out for the welfare of my people. You are deceived into thinking that you are protecting yourself, the people, and the buildings. I am not interested in your buildings. I will raise up teachers and shepherds who will feed my people the truth. Your buildings will either become empty or they will be filled with people who do not follow me but who only follow after their material things and pleasures. This is not the Church I am coming back for.

I will call my people out of the church buildings into smaller groups for my remnant will be bored and dissatisfied if you do not teach what I say. I will call my true remnant away from the church buildings and away from your teachings. You may say that you are teaching good things and that they are Biblical things, and that you do not care about money, gain or reputation. But I say you have deceived yourself, and the "good things" you teach are not what I want you to teach now. If you will, I will cast a search light into your heart and show you your false motives and real desires. If you will, I will show you what I want you to teach now.

You say, they should not leave the church buildings, it will be anarchy, they need me, I am their trained pastor, I am the professional. I do not want them to follow you, I want them to know and follow me, and you have caused them to be dependent on you, to need you because you love that control, but you have not let them be free to do what I tell them. You do not want the people to minister because you want to minister and you want to be seen and you want them to be dependent on you. But I want my people to break forth in the gifts of the Spirit. You are afraid to let them do that for fear that there will be false things or phony things or too much confusion. You are afraid of false prophecies but you must let the people speak. You must let my people be free. Let the false speak along with the true and if you are close to me as you ought to be, the false will be seen clearly and they will go away. But if you are afraid and too protective you will smother the true and cast down the true along with the false and my life in the church will also be smothered and cast down. Do you not understand that I want to see my gifts come forth from all my people and it will be my flow of life in your congregation, otherwise you will dry up and be dead. You must set my people free. If you will not do it I will send deliverers to set them free and my true remnant will leave you.

This is a word of threshing and winnowing. This is a word that I want to be clear to you as pastors and leaders. But I want all my people to hear what I am saying to the Church. I know that you as leaders will cry, this will be anarchy and trouble. No, you must realize that I want each one of my children, each of my servants to know me and hear my voice for themselves. I do not want my people to be so dependent on just a few, as their kings and rulers. I want my people to know me as King and me as their ruler. Will you set my people free and let them minister? Will you encourage them to step forth in their gifts or will you continue the same as you are? My Church is in ruins, my Church is weak, I am sad for my Church. They are not getting what they need because you leaders are ruling with your tight reigns to protect yourself and the reputation of your church name. You must stop this control and let my people go. I will send true shepherds to them if you will not. My true shepherds have been taught by me how to give the sheep only what I say and their love is pure for me, my name, and for the people, with sincerity. This is my warning to all churches, all leadership, and a call to my people to hear my voice only and follow what I tell you. Each one of you must seek me and I will stir up the gifts that are within you, and you will know what you must do. Do not be afraid anymore. Draw near to me and I will stir up boldness and courage in you to do all that must be done in my churches in this last hour. Be faithful to me, each of you serve me, take a hold of all that I am calling you to do in this last hour, saith the Lord your God.

Vision

God wants a permanent revival or move of his Spirit in every city, that will last until the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord is willing to have us meet six days a week if we are willing. Not every church or city will hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches, so the places (homes, buildings or churches) in which he wants to dwell and manifest his glory as fully as he desires might be the only place in 100 miles where God is manifesting the fullness of what he desires. I have been sent with a prophetic ministry to this country and the nations to reveal in 5 to 6 hours of messages (possibly in three 2-hour segments) what he has sent me to speak to each church or city. (See Matt. 22:1-14 to see Scriptural basis for servants (prophets) sent to invite people to the feast (revival)). These verses were a revelation of a deeper meaning related to revival. Along with this revelation other traditional interpretations of these verses may also be included.

These are my goals:

- To bring permanent revival wherever I go.
- To stir up all individuals to their full destiny and giftings (to know the voice of God and do what God wants them to do).
- To break down the walls between churches and ministries, to cause the Body of Christ to love each other, to be united to work together God's works (the world will know that we are of God and many will be saved).
- To be holy myself and to call each church to holiness so that the Bride of Christ can be prepared for Christ without man-made or worldly spots and wrinkles.

- To help individuals gain an anointing and fire and power so that the world will see our God and know that he is truly in our midst (and many will be saved).
- To create a dwelling place for God. where 6 days a week (if desired) God will be free to manifest himself 100% doing all that he desires to do in every service with his variety, the full direction of the Holy Spirit, with his glory and fire in the fullness that he desires for each place.

When you have given up everything, every desire for comfort, every desire for recognition, you become fearless, will do anything, anytime, anywhere, no matter what he says, with no timidity, with clarity in hearing, hearing only him, not doing more or less than what he says, then you will enter his perfect rest and cease from your labors. You won't care what people think, you have nothing to prove, no name (of your own) to uphold, protect or build (except honor, truth, sincerity, keeping your promises, etc. and, of course, the name of Jesus Christ). You will have no reputation to diminish or increase, only saying and doing what God says. Many people will not understand or like what you are doing but will hate the anointing (except those who God is calling to the truth, they will come to the truth). It will not be many, but few.

MISSION 2003

I am coming to the end of four years of traveling for Prophetic Ministry. My mission four years ago, in short summary, was (1) to speak into the churches the word that the Lord is speaking now to His Church, and (2) to bring real revival to the local church not just for 3 days, a week, or 10 days, etc., but revival that will continue till the coming of the Lord. I would like now to focus again on the mission the Lord has given me, seeing it more clearly from my perspective looking back on the last four years. Here are the main points of that mission:

1. The Lord wants to speak to every person and make each person a powerful instrument of his glory like Smith Wigglesworth, Kathryn Kuhlman, Moses, Elijah, the Apostle Paul, John the Baptist, or any powerful, dynamic man or woman of God in history. The problem is our busy-ness so that we do not seek Him diligently, with all our heart to hear Him. We lack willingness to do anything he wants us to do. It is our unwillingness to pay the price of giving up our lives to seek Him, hear Him and do all that he says.

2. Pastors and churches are experiencing good or even great church services, wonderful music, powerful sermons, dynamic praise, great special music, beautiful flows of the Spirit, even prophetic words and other spiritual gifts, also prayer and healing lines where people have wonderful experiences from God. The only problem is the Lord wants much more than what is going on today. It is not good enough, it is not acceptable to the Lord, it is not what the Lord wants or what he is desiring or what he is looking for. He is looking for church services totally given over to his direction and his will where he comes down and does exactly as He desires from beginning to end of the service. He could cause a whole service to be under an anointing of intercessory prayer, and it could end up being two hours of travail and tears, with people on their faces at the altar. Or a whole service may be given to repentance and confessing over the sins and idols in our lives. Or the Lord may cause us to recognize our lack of love for each other and he may cause a complete breaking down of the walls that stand between us. Or he may teach us how to just sing new songs of the Spirit in an ebb and flow that can only be created by his Spirit, and then He may bring in a hush that causes us to sit or lay before him in an awed silence, and we will all know when He lifts it. Or he may create a service of testimonies and rich flowing fellowship created and led by His Spirit alone. Or a spirit of prophecy may descend and the Lord may speak to us (face to face) in wave after wave of prophetic directions and insights and revelations. Or all of the above, every moment totally orchestrated by the Holy Spirit in our church services. This is what the Lord wants and even more than can be explained on paper, more than we can even think or imagine right now. He wants us to be caught up all together into his throne room to see Him and see things we've never seen before. He'll give us corporate visions and corporate revelations, as we are in His courts and our church sanctuary becomes His dwelling place. But again, what pastor or local church is willing to pay the price for this kind of service? It doesn't come cheaply, and if you want to please the people who are clamoring for more songs or more sermons or, "If you don't do it the way I want I'm just going to go down the street and get the kind of services I want and I am used to." Well, people may just leave your church to go down the street and get what they want. Are you as a church willing to disappoint people's expectations to do only what the Lord is looking for? (to please the Lord only?).

The Lord has called me to bring this message to the Church at large. And he has shown me what to say and how to go step by step toward these goals. What do you think? Is it what you are looking for? What do you think the Lord wants to do in your city? What is the Lord saying to you? Where are you going? Where has the Lord been leading you? I sure would love to hear what the Lord is saying to you. Please keep in touch with me or write and let me know how you are doing.

How do I know what I have spoken above will work? Because the Lord has always, through all of history, been found by those who seek him diligently, it is promised in His Word.
